A Stickler For Promptness. A certain merchant in Boston is noted for being a stickler in the matter of promptness to the extent that he has been known to walk out of church be cause the services did not begin promptly and to leave his sister alone in a strange city because she was four minutes late in keeping an appoint-Not long ago he overheard forceful exposition of his peculiarity.

He had walked out to his stable and was about to go in when he heard the new groom within say to the coach man, "Is it thrue, Dolan, that the box is cracked about doing things on time and goes into a fit whin annyhody is late?

"Thrue? Turue?" cried Dolan. "Let me tell you, Ryan, how thrue it is. If the boss had promised to mate himself at iliven o'clock and was late he'd find himself gone whin he got there. That's how thrue it is!"

Leprosy.
Smallpox, or variola, was not known to the Romans before the sixth century Leprosy is as different from it as palsy is from St. Vitus' dance. What is this awful disease? Something endemic chronic, malignant, with cutaneon lesion. All that France and England gained by engaging in the cru sades was leprosy, and of all that they took leprosy was the only thing that remained with them. In olden times every man laboring under the disease was imprisoned like a thief or a robber. Moth holes and the mildew on walls were believed to be the effects of leprosy.-New York Press.

The staid, dignified and homely baldheaded eagle, the glorious emblem of the American republic, mates but once and lives with his one mate until he or she dies. If left a widower-even a young widower-the baldheaded eagle never mates again. He remains alone and disconsolate in the nest on the rocky crag or in the branches of a tall pine that formed his domicile while his mate was alive. No other female eagle can tempt him to forsake his disconsolate life.

Machen & Moncure, Altorneys for complainant. Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the oldfashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for iostant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied tor oil to correct any disorder of the troucle appears.
